

MORNING TO EVENING ITINERARIES WITH A FOCUS ON DOING, EATING & DRINKING, WHICH LEADS TO SEEING.

or spontaneous traveler, you can find peace in having recommendations available to you in an organized fashion. By organized, I'm referring to how I order events by location, in a manner that is travel efficient, with realistic expectations for how long activities, sightseeing and meals last. I pride myself on the extensive thought that goes into each itinerary to help make trips more effective and enjoyable!

As you may have gathered, I have a desire to plan anything and everything. Whether it is in my home city of Chicago or an International trip, you better bet I am researching, experiencing and recording. Although I am not a travel agent, for years, my itineraries have been distributed to friends and families to enhance their trips. Why not share something I love with other eager travelers?

My itineraries are made with a focus on doing, eating & drinking, which leads to seeing! Make plans easier — the editable excel templates allow you to add in your own personality, interests and adventures. Or simply download the PDF for a ready to go version. Enjoy! I am eager to hear from you!

The Food & Drink Weekend // Cincinnati

Date	Location	Time	Activity	Location	Price Range	Notes
Thursday	Cincinnati, OH	4:00pm	Arrive in Cincinnati	3087 Terminal Dr, Hebron, KY 41048	$$$	Suprise! If you book your flight to Cincinnati, you actually will be landing in Kentucky. Since it is right across the border, the airport is a quick 20 minute drive to Cincinnati city center. If you fly in, I recommend renting a car. Although everything around the city is relatively close, it is easier to get around quickly in your own car since there is no public transportation.
