| $ | You'll find pretty much all airlines fly into Los Cabos Even if you are going to San Jose del Cabo, you will still fly into SJD. |
| | Book round trip transportation ahead of time with your hotel or airbnb host. Transportation will be waiting for you at arrivals gate under one of the umbrellas across the street. Be sure to avoid conversation with time share representatives - if they tell you they are there to pick you up, or that you need a confirmation number, please disregard these and all other comments. Once you pick up your luggage, please take the exit, cross the street and find our Airport Host holding a sign with the name and logo of the VICEROY LOS CABOS, they will be waiting for you at one of the tents on your right. |

| | Eat in an art structure! Yes, that nest shaped thing in the middle of Viceroy has a restaurant inside. From the website: [The specialty: robatayaki, a tableside Japanese grill and the freshest produce from the sea. The setting: a beautiful nest-like structure suspended between ocean and land, and surrounded by "espejos de agua," literally water mirrors, magical in their own right. It's a setting fit for an adventurer.] The food was absolutely delicious too! We ordered lots of sushi and nigiri and sushimi. |
| | |
| | Best massage of my life. How many times have I claimed that?! Haha, but seriously, we still think about this one. Couples 90 minute fitness massage. Indoor spa with superb facilities relaxation room, sauna, hot and cold tubs, steam room, services. |
| | There is a lot of pool / hotel time on this itinerary because the Viceroy is absolutely stunning (and expensive) so enjoying the hotel is worth it! |
| | Grab an uber to this farm to table restaurant that is an experience in itself! From the website: "Tamarindos is an organic farm & restaurant just one mile away from the sea of cortez and San Jose del Cabo's estuary. Located in a farm house dating back to the 19th Century, which used to grow sugar cane, one of the region's major exports at the time, and due to its fertile soil quickly became one of the region's most important farms. At Tamarindos the produce we use is dictated by the crops currently in season in the fields below our restaurant. The fresh fish we offer is caught daily by independent local fishermen and hand-selected by our chef. The chicken we serve comes from our flock of quail and hens. The recipes we use have been handed down through generations to bring you a unique and memorable dining experience." |

| | The cutest shopping opportunity for a fashion statement/ souvenir/ custom gift in all of Los Cabos! @corazon_playero is a local business that is gaining tons of popularity for their handmade, top quality (natural materials), and super unique hats, or as they say "wearable art"! You can spot them at resort boutiques, host an in-home event or visit their shop in San Jose del Cabo. DM the shop on Instagram to schedule an appt to shop for hats and get your initials embroidered by the local artisans. Starting at $250 per hat. It was incredibly cool to watch and a fun activity all while walking away with a functional and fashionable addition to the closet! |
| | The San Jose del Cabo Art Walk is a popular and free weekly event held every Thursday evening from 5pm to 9pm between the months of November and June. Food, drink, art, music. |
| | Lumbre, La Lupita Taco & Mezcal, Mi Casa Restaurant San Jose |
| 15 ix on | Must reserve your spots. Looking for an activity in San Jose del Cabo? Venture to this amazing organic farm & resort for a cooking class! I'm sure you've heard of it. @ Flora Farms » tour the farm » learn how to cook » enjoy your meal with a cocktail » go home with a recipe book We made two salsas, guacamole and tortillas. Then sat down and we're served fish tacos, salads and yummy cocktails! It was perfect for a group, but we also were joined by couples and families. Fun for all. If you cannot get into the cooking class, still plan to visit! Their restaurant is to die for! Our only regret was not visiting the spa and spending the afternoon by the resort pool. Next time because we will be back! Frolic through flower fields, shop at the farmers market, shop til you drop, heck have your wedding here! All options! |
| | This jungle - like restaurant and cocktail bar s situated on a resort property. The cocktails are fun, the vibes are fabulous and the environment is unique! From the website: "ACRE, a lush sanctuary set on 25 acres of abundant greenery. Featuring elegant treehouses, organic farms, private event spaces, and an award-winning bar and restaurant, connection and celebration are at the heart of what we do." |
| | The most remarkable view right onsite at the Viceroy! Go during sunset and stay late for drinks. Delicious drinks and expansive food options. From the website: "Expansive ocean views on one side are complemented by vibrant, fiery sunsets on another, creating a destination alongside a bountiful food and beverage offering highlighted by fresh seafood, flame-grilled fare, and wood-fired pizza oven. Our Chefs love cooking over flames and believe that great cooking comes from the heart. Combining woodfire grills, a brick oven, and seasonal ingredients, the menu is designed to honor the simplicity and the soul of each element." |
| | Uber is easy and safe to use, but make sure you order your Uber ~20 minutes before you want to leave because sometimes it can take some time to get one or have them drive to your location. And I recommend tipping! Uber takes a lot of the funds out of the payment. |
| | Very chic and modern beachfront restaurant with a robust drink list & elevated international cuisine. For brunch the avocado toast was AMAZING! |
| | Cabo Sailing Ocean Adventures » 46ft yacht » updated & spacious » open bar » Mexican lunch » Bluetooth connection » experienced crew » snorkel » whale watch |
| | Bring a change of clothes for dinner and get ready in the room on the boat before getting off. It wouldn't make much sense to drive all the way back to the Viceroy, when this restaurant is a 10 minute drive from the boat dock. Grab an uber and it will be very easy to get to. You shouldn't have too much stuff with you because the boat has open bar, food, towels and Bluetooth speakers, so no need to bring a cooler or anything else. |
| | Call to make a reservation. They always look booked online, but they aren't. Put this one on your MUST list if you are near Cabo San Lucas but want to avoid the craziness of the downtown area. El Huerto Farm to Table is dreamyyyyy! Hip, country, farmy, industrial, backyard, tropical vibes. And adorns a picturesque backdrop of the mountains where the sun sets so beautifully. But that's not even the best part the food and drinks steal the show! » Beet Salad » Clam & Corn Chowder » Tempura Green Beans » Homemade Pasta with lamb sauce » Tiger Shrimp » Suckling Pig » Totoaba » Jack's Mule » Espresso Martini » Mezcal Margarita |
| | Uber back to hotel to go to bed or have drinks, or go out downtown. The night is young! |
| | Experience a top tier spa with unique outdoor facilities, impeccable service, delicious food & drink and fabulous massages. Tan, soak, massage, complimentary juice, lunch delivery poolside & chileno bay auberge slides into spot #1 for best all around spa experience! Beautiful public golf course gracefully laid out over the rolling foothills of the Sierra de la Laguna Mountains, overlooking the Sea of Cortes. While the golf scene is quite expensive in Cabo, this was a reasonable option, especially for us leisurely golfers. |
| | Stop by the front desk, or email to confirm your ride tomorrow to the airport. |

| | | 7:30PM | Dinner at Dalia | Viceroy Los Cabos | $$$ | The newest restaurant at Viceroy I haven't been but it looks amazing. From the website: [Just as no flower is the same, there is no restaurant quite like Dalia. This outdoor garden dining experience is where Mediterranean flavors flourish, with a creative Los Cabos twist. Follow the winding water pathways and find yourself in the company of native plants and citrus trees. Refined and relaxed, the sprawling terrace is where garden beauty seems to stretch infinitely. At night, Dalia transforms into a destination spot that invites you to linger over handmade pasta and fresh seafood in the light of the full moon.] |
